

2010 Federal Volunteer Brigade

Event Schedule

May 15-16, 2010

Battle of New Market.

New Market, VA

146th Battle of New Market, in New Market, VA., fought May 15, 1864 Emphasis on the role of the Virginia Military Institute Cadets in the battle.

Combat scenarios each day, other living history presentations throughout weekend. Over 2,000 Confederate, Union, & civilian reenactors. Features 300-acre battlefield

June 12-13, 2010

Lehigh Valley Civil War Days

Camp Geiger

Whitehall Pa.

Battles and Skirmishes, Living History Scenarios, Camp life displays, Civil War Music and cooking. Saturday evening Candlelight tour, Plus Infantry and Artillery Firing

Demonstrations. Free Admission for Spectators all Donations to benefit Civil War

Battlefield Preservation. Click for Brochure

July 2-3-4-5, 2010

147th Gettysburg

Gettysburg, PA

Live Mortar demonstrations, Expansive Living history village with all day Activities. Two Living History Activities tents with continuous programs. Large and diverse Sutler village Battles Friday evening, Cavalry and Infantry battles on Saturday and Sunday

October 16-17, 2010

Cedar Creek

The 146th anniversary Reenactment of the battle of Cedar Creek

Express registration $15 July 19, 2010 $20 till August 23.

$25 Late Reg. and $30 walk-on

November 19, 2010

Federal Volunteer Brigade

Annual meeting

Gettysburg Firewall, 7pm

November 20, 2010

Remembrance Day Ceremonies and Parade

Gettysburg, PA

join the regiment for morning ceremonies in the National Cemetery. Parade then forms up at Gettysburg High School and steps off at 12:00 noon through the streets of the town.

Additional details and directions to come.